PRICES FOR SEWER MATERIAL

The board of public service was in session yesterday till noon for the purpose of opening bids for the storm water sewers to be constructed on East Fourth street between Gibbs street and the creek, and on North Young street and North Rowland street. The rooms of the board were crowded with interested bidders. The clerk was instructed to tabulate the bids and the contract will be awarded as soon as that work has been done. The bids were for 36, 24, 20, 18 and 12 inch pipes, catch basins, manholes, brick manholes and sheeting. The following is a table of the respective bids:

Judicial Flogging in India.

Let me draw the attention of the public to a shocking state of affairs which exist under the criminal law in India, says a writer in Reynold's Newspaper.

In 1902, the last year for which figures are available, no fewer than 25,186 judicial floggings were inflicted upon adult male and female offenders for petty theft and the like. According to Sir Henry Cotton, M.

P. K. C. S. I., who has published a pamphlet on this subject, these degrading floggings are administered publicly over the bare body.

The triangles are an unpleasant feature outside every criminal court in India. Sir Henry says: "I have known of floggings so severe that the victims have died on the triangles to which they were tied."

And this horrible torture is inflicted for the slightest offences.

HITCHCOCK

MAY MANAGE TAFT CAMPAIGN

Work In South and East Under His Charge

VORYS FIELD OF OPERATIONS TO BE LIMITED. STORY OF CORTELYOU CONSPIRACY IS PROVED UNFOUNDED.

Washington, Jan. 3.—Frank R. Hitchcock, the first assistant postmaster general, has been asked by Secretary Taft to take charge of Mr. Taft's political interests in the south and east. He has the invitation under advisement. Mr. Hitchcock was accused by Taft boomers and newspapermen of being the head and front of the so-called "conspiracy" which was alleged to have been organized to bring him about George B. Cortelyou's nomination for the presidency under cover of getting up sentiment for a third term for President Roosevelt. The invitation extended to Mr. Hitchcock by Mr. Taft puts an end to all the "conspiracy" talk and is bound to cause cold chills to run up and down the soft spines of those indiscreet workers for the secretary of war who complained to Mr. Roosevelt that Secretary Cortelyou and Mr. Hitchcock were not playing fair.

There was no Cortelyou "conspiracy," or whatever else it may be termed. The action of Mr. Taft in selecting Mr. Hitchcock for his political manager in the south and east in the first step in the understood intention of the Ohio candidate to bring order out of chaos into which his campaign for the presidential nomination has been thrown. Although those who were left in charge of Mr. Taft's political interests while he was abroad, were too prone to cry "wolf" whenever they encountered difficulties there is no doubt that these fears were justified to some extent. Even among ardent admirers of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Taft within the Republican party there was a resentment that the political administration seeks to perpetuate itself there was dissatisfaction over the attempt of the Taft boomers, to make it appear that opposition to Taft was opposition to the choice of the Republican party. The Taft management saw things in the dark and got into a panic which interfered with effective campaign work while the managers of other candidates for the presidential nomination went ahead quietly building up organizations that would stand the test of offense and defensive tactics. In these circumstances it was necessary for Mr. Taft to strengthen his forces and as he was not making headway in the south and east, he decided to place a special manager in charge of his campaign work in these sections.

Mr. Taft had a conference last night with Mr. Hitchcock and Representative Theo. E. Burton of the 21st Ohio congressional district, who ran unsuccessfully as the federal administration candidate for mayor of Cleveland against Tom L. Johnson. Mr. Burton is the foremost Taft advocate in northern Ohio. He has some knowledge of Mr. Hitchcock's ability as a political organizer and he added his solicitation to that of Mr. Taft to induce Mr. Hitchcock to accept Mr. Taft's tender. Mr. Hitchcock it is understood, did not indicate whether he would accept or decline, but promised a definite answer as soon as he could consult with some friends whose advice he valued.

Since Mr. Taft's return it has been stated that he would not disturb Arthur L. Vorys as a manager of the Taft interests, but the request made to Mr. Hitchcock points to an intention of Mr. Taft to curtail Mr. Vorys' field of activity. Mr. Vorys will be left probably in charge of the Taft campaign in Ohio, and additional managers will be intrusted with the work in other parts of the country.

Frieds of Mr. Taft are hopeful that in several speeches which he will make in the near future he will speak his own views on political subjects without continuing as a mere defender of President Roosevelt. He has accepted several invitations to make addresses. On January 10, he will speak before the People's Forum in Cooper Institute in New York. On January 14, he will address the Ohio society of Philadelphia. The Tippocanoe club of Cleveland, will have a dinner on McKinley's birthday January 26, at which Mr. Taft will speak and on February 12, he will address the Lincoln club of Grand Rapids, Mich.

A Cure for Misery. "I have found a cure for the misery malaria poison produces," says R. M. James, of Louellen, S. C. "It's called Electric Bitters, and comes in 50 cent bottles. It breaks up a case of chills or a bilious attack in almost no time; and it puts yellow jaundice clean out of commission." This great tonic medicine and blood purifier gives quick relief in all stomach, liver and kidney complaints and the misery of lame back. Sold under guarantee at the Durbin & Wright Co. drug store.
